

ILB-GROUP – PRIVACY POLICY

The ILB Group (hereinafter referred to as “we”, “us” or “our”) consisting of ILB, Interfreight logistics Benelux Antwerp BVBA and ILB, Interfreight Logistics Benelux BV recognizes the need for the proper management of personal information, and we handle such information in our possession in accordance with the following principles:

1. Collection of Personal Information

We fairly and lawfully collect personal information only to the extent necessary for our services, specifying the intended use of such information.

2. Intended Use of Personal Information

We will use only the personal information that is necessary to achieve our intended purposes. When we need to use your personal information beyond the scope of such purposes, we shall obtain your consent, except when permitted by laws or regulations.

3. Management of Personal Information

In managing personal information, we assign a person in charge of handling personal information, and take appropriate and sensible protective measures on the technical level and organizational level.

4. Provision to Third Parties

We will not provide your personal information to any third party unless we have received your consent, or unless permitted by law. However, in the case we need to provide your personal information to a third party, the information provided and the receiving third party will be limited to the above scope for achieving the intended purpose.

5. Inquiries concerning Personal Information

If you have any inquiries related to personal information we possess, please contact us. We will promptly respond with explanation within the limits we consider appropriate and reasonable.

6. Compliance with Laws and Regulations, and Commitment to this Policy

We fully abide by all laws and regulations concerning personal information protection. Moreover, we are committed to implementing the clauses mentioned above with lawful conduct.
